Darci Lynne & Friends: The Growing Pains Tour

Ventriloquist and singer Darci Lynne captured America's attention and hearts in 2017 at the age of 12 after winning NBC's America's Got Talent. What followed was nothing short of amazing— completing three successful tours, hosting her own NBC Christmas special, headlining Vegas, guest starring on the animated series Fancy Nancy (Disney Junior) and Scooby Doo and Guess Who (Cartoon Network), and appearing on TODAY, Ellen, and Kelly Clarkson. Cast in the feature film Reagan, she was a series regular on Nickelodeon, and has performed multiple times at the Ryman and the Grand Ole Opry.

Darci Lynne also co-starred in the film Cowgirl's Song which featured her original song "Just Breathe." Shortly after, her music video Push Our Luck would be awarded Best Music Video at the Los Angeles Film Awards.

Today, the singer, comedian, and actress, with a social media reach of over 10M, continues to command the stage on her new nationwide tour of sold-out performances that feature a larger variety show experience showcasing her multifaceted talent and the colorful cast of favorites she created. Better than ever at charming audiences with their comedy, music, and showtime shenanigans, Darci Lynne, Petunia, Edna, and Oscar recently welcomed the whimsical Andy, to her 2026 tour. He fits right in, although Petunia begs to differ.

Her current tour offers audiences a fun-filled opportunity to catch up with the popular performer and powerhouse vocalist and her sidekicks again. Things have changed since 2017. She's older and taller. They're crazier than ever. And the laughs and great music never end.

When Darci's not on the you road, you can find her in Nashville recording more music.
